Description

Offering excellent sensitivity and power, the Ardent Edge Series Casting Rods are a great choice for a wide range of bass fishing applications. The high-grade 36-million modulus Toray carbon blank are super lightweight, and they have been computer designed to deliver the perfect action and balance. The blanks also feature an exclusive cloth wrap for unprecedented strength. Durable micro guides help reduce weight while increasing casting distance and accuracy, and the high sensitivity tips help increase sensitivity even further. Lightweight Comfort Touch reel seats provide direct access to the rod blank for increased sensitivity transfer, and premium molded split grip handles deliver all day comfort. Get an edge on the competition with the new Ardent Edge Series Casting Rods.
